CELEBRATING NUCLEAR SCIENCE WEEK  October 16 – 20, 2023

BUILD A CAREER in the Nuclear Industry

Nuclear Technology Supports
- Environmental Management
- Energy
- Food & Agriculture
- Manufacturing
- Medicine
- National Security
- Research and Development
- Space Exploration

Why Choose Nuclear
- Great Salary
- Excellent Benefits
- Growing Workforce
- New Technologies
- Advancement Opportunities
- Make a Difference

Employability Skills Needed
- Creative Thinking
- Dependability
- Flexibility
- Motivation
- Teamwork
- Time Management

Educational Levels
- High School Diploma
- Technical College Training/Certificate
- University/College Degree
- Military Training

Nuclear Career Options
- Administrative
- Chemists
- Engineers
- Information Technology Specialists
- Maintenance Technicians
- Production Operators
- Radiological Control Inspectors
- Plus More ...

PROGRAMS OFFERED AT SIX AREA EDUCATIONAL PARTNERS
- Aiken Technical College
- Augusta Technical College
- Augusta University
- Claflin University
- University of South Carolina Aiken
- University of South Carolina Salkehatchie

BUILDING A SKILLED WORKFORCE WITH SCHOLARSHIPS
Workforce Opportunities in Regional Careers (WORC) scholarships are available, in varying amounts, at six area educational institutions. Scholarships focus on programs that provide opportunities for local careers.

Visit www.srsacro.org for more information.